Joy Of First Classics (Joy Of...Series)

Synopsis

(Yorktown). Nothing can quite compare to the satisfaction, pleasure and joy of learning and playing the finest pieces of classical music and this terrific volume gives you the opportunity to do exactly that! Inside there are more than 60 easy pieces and keyboard miniatures by master composers. All the pieces are printed in their original form though have had sensible expression marks and fingerings added. There is a wonderful range and diversity to these pieces with works by the likes of Bach, Haydn, Mozart and also lesser-known composers, set for piano solo.

This book (and volume 2) is a nice way to ease your just-barely-music-reading students into the classics. It begins with very short, mostly hands unison pieces and increases in difficulty up to early intermediate level. This book could be sufficient for 2 or 3 years to supplement a good methods book course.

Just what I wanted - easy to play songs for the adult. (Although just fine for kids too.) Each song is about one page in length and probably takes three minutes to play. Songs get progressively harder. I do, however, wish some of the songs were longer. I would have liked to get lost in one that was two or three pages long. It's also nice that they start off each song with a number indicating the proper fingering.

There are about one million pieces that could be included in such a volume and Agay has chosen wisely. Good for elementary level players.

This book contains a nice mixture of classical pieces for children to play. I found the pieces appropriate for a first grader through 5th-6th grade depending on skill level.

The pieces sound great and are challenging to the brain and fingers. However, not too complicated for a beginner.

This is great-- there is a bit of range in skill level within the book itself. Nice arrangements.

Great selections for my students

LOVE IT!!! THANK YOU!
