Customer Reviews

This is my third coloring book by Jason Hamilton. I have become a real fan with his wonderful representations of cats (on quilts and with Santa in previous coloring books.) I am extremely pleased with the gorgeous designs in this new book. The artist has created a unique coloring book in that he has three levels of design levels. Each of the levels has ten designs. The first level is Simple Illustrations and includes women from: Korea, France, Polynesia, Spain, Italy, Southeast Asia, Canada, Morocco, Native American, and Western USA. The second level is Illustrations with Additional Detail and includes women from: Bride, Southern Belle, USA, UK, Japan, Pakistan, Peru, Nepal, Jamaica, and South Africa. The final level is Challenging Illustrations and includes women from India, Kamchatka, Victorian Lace, USA, Russia, Mexico, Norway, Brazil, Switzerland, and Ireland. In addition to the three levels, the artist has included seven designs which are zoomed in images of other of the designs already mentioned above. The zoomed shot gives the colorist the opportunity to add more detail and shading to their project. All of the designs stop well before the binding. The designs are printed on one side of thin white non-perforated paper that is typical for books published by CreateSpace. The binding is glued but there is plenty of room for you to cut a page out if you choose to do so. All of the designs have a line around the outside. I really like this as it gives me a natural stopping point, saves ink/pencil, and also gives me a more finished looking project when I color. All of my markers bleed through and my gel pens either bleed through or leave a distinct shadow on the back of the page. My coloring pencils work well with the paper.

When I opened the box this coloring book arrived in, it was on the very top and the bright colors grabbed my attention and the layout reminded me of a fashion magazine. I'm not a fan of fashion magazines, however, I'm a fan of adult coloring and there are so many to choose from. I belong to a coloring group on Facebook called Adult Coloring Worldwide and I happened to be there one evening when Jason announced he was releasing a new coloring book. I got a chance to talk with him about his new book. I don't color skin tones and facial features in particular are difficult. I'm not an artist. I color for relaxation like so many others do. I have multiple sclerosis and when I started coloring, I was calmer, more patient, and I could sit and color for hours at a time. This is true with most of my coloring books, but I am writing a review for "Color me Beautiful, Women of the World." I'm not very confident coloring in the book yet. I make a copy that I can REALLY practice with. This book is divided nicely into sections. The first is easy, the second is more detailed and a bit harder than the first section. And then there is the last section which is very challenging for me. I'm still working in the easier part of the book. I think it's really nice that the artist didn't just draw women we would see on a daily basis. He drew women from all over the world and most are dressed in clothing native to that woman's culture. I think that was a wonderful idea. The artist's website has some very informative tips and pictures of some of the pages that are complete, and how to use your coloring medium(s) to achieve certain effects. I think that this coloring book was well thought out before the first sketch was ever made.
