I bought this for my eleven year old son, and he loves all of the (hip)characters. There are hours of fun printed on these gruesome pages of zombie madness. My son even colored a page for my studio wall, Peter the Punk Rocker.

This book is great. It was a lot of fun at Christmas and garnered a few good laughs. Fair warning to those who might want to buy this for a child; One of the pages has a drawing of a stripper zombie.

Wonderful adult coloring book for the zombie lover in your life. Would like to see some easier pages mixed in for those days you're just not up for all the intricate detail work. But still well worth getting. Giving this as a gift to my 25 year old son.

made my zombie obsessed roommate smile. that's not easy to do.win win!

nice little zombie coloring book. i love the variety of zombies every page has a unique picture. there's a bunch odd pages as well I think around 35-40 which still keep anyone busy for many hours and hours!

i was excited about getting this coloring book--i love anything zombies--pictures are great-no background to color-i can deal with that--but the pages are printed on both sides--i use sharpie pens and they will bleed through to other side of paper--so for that i give this book three stars--

Pictures are very basic with no backgrounds. Luckily I bought this for drawing purposes and not for actual coloring!

Would've gave a 5 star, but the photos are on each side so they bleed thru to the other photo
